BIO

Allen Baker is a Southern Gospel Singer who started going to gospel concerts in Atlanta, GA who he was 5 years old and listening to such groups as the Inspirations, Kingsmen, Happy Goodmans and The Hinsons. Later he started singing at his church and then in his teenage years sung with several local groups around his hometown of Talking Rock, GA. He recorded a few local CD's from 1990 to 2019, then Covid hit and everything shut down including places to sing, but in 2023 he regrouped his solo ministry and the Lord blessed him in the calling.

The Lord gave him with singing at around 75 dates in 2023 then in 2024 the Lord really started opening the doors he will have 150 bookings and singing engagements. He will end 2024 with his First professional CD project with producer Shane Roark and Chapel Valley Studios and his first booth at The National Quartet Convention.
